THE MARYLAND SPCA HOLDS THIRD ANNUAL ONLINE AUCTION
Shop-a-Paw-Looza, an Online Auction to Benefit the Animals

Baltimore – Animal-lovers everywhere will be able to shop their way to helping the cats and dogs at The Maryland SPCA's online auction, Shop-a-Paw-Looza. The auction opens for bidding at www.mdspca.cmarket.com on October 9, at noon. The auction will be open until October 30, at 9 p.m.

From designer jewelry, gift certificates, and vacation getaways to artwork and toys for your pet, there's sure to be something for everyone. The public is invited to browse the auction categories at www.mdspca.cmarket.com. Last year's auction raised $47,000.

The Maryland SPCA improves the lives of pets and people in the community by fostering healthy animal-human relationships. As a local, private nonprofit organization, The Maryland SPCA receives no government funding or operating money from national animal welfare organizations, making it critical to raise funds through programs such as Shop-a-Paw-Looza.

For more information regarding the event, call 410-235-8826, ext. 133, email cprice@mdspca.org, or visit the SPCA website at www.mdspca.org.
